Pensioners' Chapter

We Want You* To Join Us And the First Year Is Free

- To help us protect your benefits and your pension.
- To make us a more effective organization (more people-more strength).
- To save more than the cost of your fees through affinity programs.

"Congratulations on your retirement. Whether you choose to relax or pursue new opportunities, we wish you the best of luck."

"In this time of uncertain pension security, we have been working hard to represent the Society pensioners' interests and keep our members informed about important issues. Remain a part of the Society team. Please try our group and see what we are doing on your behalf."

Purpose of Chapter

- Represent pensioners' issues (e.g. Health and Dental Benefits & Pension Security).
- Keep pensioners informed on matters important to them.
- Co-ordinate with other pensioner groups on broader pensioner issues (strength in numbers) e.g. Congress of Union Retirees of Canada (CURC) (www.unionretiree.ca) and Canadian Federation of Pensioners (CFP) (www.pensioners.ca).

* Who Can Join

If you are retired as a Society-represented employee or as their spouse receiving benefits you can become a full Member.

If you were a Society-represented employee but left in a Management Function or other management position you can become an Associate Member.

A Society member on a bridge to retirement, or on LTD (fee waived during the bridge or deferment period pending retirement) or who has left employment but has a "deferred pension" may also apply to become a Chapter Member.

Highlights of What Pensioners' Chapter is Accomplishing

- Representing pensioners' interests at Society Council and Society Board.
- Input into Society bargaining committees regarding future changes affecting health benefits and pension security.
- Reaffirmed that The Society is there to protect pensioners' rights by having pensioner problems treated the same as other member's concerns.
- Monitoring pension activities in each company.
- Addressing individual member inquiries about benefits and helping them contact the right person.
- Answering pensioners' questions and concerns about pension payments.
- Monitoring government changes that affect our pensions through The Society and by joining Canadian Federation of Pensioners and Congress of Union Retirees of Canada.
- Keeping members informed.
